1923 Supplementary Offering

OF

"Will Grow" Nursery Stock

B. F. BARR & CO., (Keystone Nurseries)
Lancaster, Penna.

Supplementing our general catalog of 1922, to which customers are referred for a more complete list of all kinds of Nursery Stock, this folder is designed to call special attention to some meritorious varieties and to list other varieties and sizes not included therein. If you have mislaid your 1922 catalog another will be sent gladly on request.

In the following pages you will find many of the larger sizes included in response to the demand from customers who want large sizes for immediate effect. We have also added numerous smaller sizes, finding that many persons desire to use the small plants in order to enjoy the pleasure of seeing them grow into maturity; and prefer to sacrifice immediate effect for this more inexpensive planting in whose development lies considerable pleasure.

Prices quoted, unless otherwise stated, are f. o.b. nurseries, Lancaster, Pa., and include packing charges. In comparing prices always take the latter point into consideration. Our fixed prices enable you to determine exactly how much your plants will cost you when delivered to the carrying company.

Dormant Roses More Economical To Use Than The Potted Plants

If you are looking for extraordinary results in Roses we advise you to try Dormant Plants—those still enjoying their winter rest. They cost you less as you are saved the cost of transporting the earth that goes with potted plants.

Orders for these, however, must be received not later than March 1 as shipment must be made the latter part of March or earlier, weather permitting.

You will have 100 per cent success with these plants if you keep both branches and roots constantly moist from the time they are received until planted. Cut them back one-half when planting. Department Store Dormant Rose Plants fail simply because they are not kept properly moist by inexperienced dealers, and we warn you against their use.

We offer only the best varieties, and all are on their own roots. Owing to the low price at which they are sold our one-half price replacement does not apply. If our customers respond favorably to our offering of Dormant Roses we will again offer them next year.

Special Offer No. 231

This is the gateway to the home of Garden Magazine, the periodical that is the gateway to beautiful gardens.

Garden Magazine is the only periodical published exclusively for the garden.

It is dedicated to all that is useful and beautiful in a garden.

It aids in every phase of garden work, each of its issues completely covering the necessary activities for that month.

Garden Magazine believes that every house needs a garden to transform it into a home. Its every issue strives to aid each home-maker to possess a garden—even though his garden can only be a mere strip of ground.

Once the word "garden" meant only spring planting. Now it means work the whole year 'round. Garden Magazine is so carefully and practically edited and planned that it will go with you, step by step, in your garden during every month in the year!

In every issue is a department that tells just what to do and how to do the work in your flower and vegetable gardens during that month. In this way, this periodical becomes a well-edited, beautifully-illustrated text-book on gardening. Each issue contains many pictures of rare and lovely gardens all over the world. They help to make of this magazine an ornament for your library table—a delight to every reader whether they garden or not.

Gardening is the most practical art of a nation. It is one of the surest marks of its progress.

For 16 years, Garden Magazine has aided in this work. It is the oldest and most trustworthy friend of all the gardens.

It is always reliable—always ready to be of service.

EVERY GARDEN MEANS A HOME

ARE YOU GOING TO GARDEN IN 1923?

Trees That Especially Please for Various Characteristics

When seeking a good tree for small lawns, and a natural informal effect try the Golden Chain Tree (laburnum vulgare) Smooth, dark foliage, and yellow pea-shaped flowers in long racemes are characteristic of this small tree whose ultimate height is about 12 feet. 5-6 feet, $2.50 each; 6-8 feet, $3.50 each; 8-10 feet, $4.50 each.

Holding its leaves until late in the season is the American Hornbeam (Carpinus carolinia) This small tree is valuable for screen groups and large hedges. The leaves and wood much resemble the Beech. 6-8 feet, $3.10; 8-10 feet, $5.00 each.

For a picturesque tree and free from attacks of insects the Maidenhair Tree, or Ginkgo Tree (Ginkgo biloba) is highly commended. It is distinctive by reason of its fan-shaped leaves. Pyramidal in habit and good as a specimen tree. 6-8 feet, $2.00; 14-16 feet, 2-2½ inch caliper, $6.00 each.

A pretty dwarf tree for the lawn is the Japanese Pagoda Tree (Sophora japonica). Its dense, round-headed form and dark green, glossy foliage make it especially striking. Flowers pea-shaped in loose panicles. Will grow in any good soil. 6-7 feet. $3.50 each.

Large edible nuts in a few seasons will result from planting that rapid growing tree the Butternut. (Juglans cinera) Spreading and open in growth. 6-8 feet, $2.00; 8-10 feet, $2.50; 10-12 feet, $3.25 each.
